yesterday, and this department has been rather hilarious since, by reason of the lots of good live company it's had, as result.

Fact is, "Uncle Joe" Dixon, formerly editorial writer on The Journal, and one of the very best old pals in the world, blew in from the Live Oak Democrat yesterday, and has been spending considerable time around his old haunts. He has been welcomed from the oldest to the youngest of The Journal force, and all who are acquainted with the remarkable personality of this lovable old Bohemian, of course, know that there never was and never shall be another "Uncle Joe."

So here's luck to him—and may he live long, and prosper!

MSR. MORRIS BEAR TO ENTERTAIN TODAY.

Mrs. Morris Bear will be one of the hostesses of the day at her home on North Palafox street. Her guests will be the members of the Six Hand Euchre Club. The hour is 3:30.

FLORILLA AND MONTGOMERY TO BE MISSED.

With the departure of the Montgomery and the Third Torpedo Florilla, matters will be a bit dull at the Yard for a time. The officers were especially popular, having been accorded many social attentions.

MRS. W. E. RICHARDS IS IN GULFPORT, MISS.

The many friends of Mrs. W. W. Richards, who, it will be remembered, has been very ill for some time, will be delighted to learn that she has so far recovered as to be able to return to Gulfport with her daughter, Mrs. Favourite, who is a resident of that city.

WOLF-GORDON WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Florence Wolf and Mr. Earle E. Gordon took place on Sunday evening at 4 o'clock at the rectory of the First M. E. church, the Rev. C. W. Gavin having officiated. The event comes as a surprise to the friends of the young people, and they are receiving congratulations.

MOTHERS' MEETING THIS AFTERNOON.

An especially interesting mothers' meeting will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Moore, at 600 East Wright street. All members of this branch of the W. C. T. U. are invited to be in attendance and also all mothers who have the interest of the children in general at heart.

AT ST. KATHERINE'S CHURCH.

At St. Katherine Episcopal church the Rev. Dr. C. M. Niles preached from the text "Honor thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may be long in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

Dr. Niles treated his subject from both a material and spiritual standpoint, putting into it a conspicuous range of thought forcefully worded and delivered with his usual impressive address.

He declared that the great lesson

Ordinary cases in 10 days, the worst in 20 days. Leaves the skin clear, soft healthy and beautiful. No possible harm can result from its use. Endorsed by thousands of grateful ladies. 50c. and $1.00 by leading druggists or mail. NATIONAL TOILET COMPANY, Paris, Tenn.

to be learned from the text and from the day is reverence for our earth parents and for God the Father of all mankind and for our mother, the church established by Christ.

The American people, Dr. Niles declared, are peculiarly lacking in reverence. They need to school themselves to a higher sense of obligation toward their earthly parents and all those exercising authority over them as well as toward the Source of all religion and the church which is religion's mouthpiece.

In the course of his sermon, Dr. Niles paid a handsome compliment to The Journal, telling his congregation that he could add nothing to the language expressed editorially in last Friday's issue of that newspaper, which was written upon the beautiful theme of motherhood. It is needless to say that The Journal highly appreciates a compliment coming from so competent a critic, although keenly conscious of its own incapacity to handle such a subject in competition with St. Katherine's eloquent rector.

WOMANS' HOME MISSION SOCIETY MET.

The regular meeting of the Womans' Home Mission society took place yesterday at the church, at the usual hour, 3:30 o'clock. A large attendance was reported, many matters of interest having received attention.

SUNDAY AT THE UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

Sunday was especially interesting at the Universalist church, a mothers' day program having occurred in the morning and in the evening. The Sabbath school has matters in charge in the morning, and the Y. P. S. U. at night. All who were present were delighted with the events.

AT THE GADSDEN STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

The Philathea and Baraca classes of the Gadsden Street Methodist church united with the following program in honor of "Mothers' Day" on Sunday morning:

Chorus—"Tell Mother I'll be there."
Address on Mothers' Day—By Rev. Frank Seay, of Mobile.
Solo—Miss Ruth Coons, "Angel's Bear News to Mother."
Announcements.
Chorus—"Home, Sweet, Home."

MR. AND MRS. ED. GALE QUINA RETURN HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gale Quina have returned from an extended wedding trip, having reached the city on Sunday night. During their absence they spent a delightful time in New York, Savannah, and various other points of interest in Georgia, and will now be at home to their many friends here at No. 607 North Spring street. Mr. and Mrs. Quina are being warmly welcomed socially, their recent marriage, it will be remembered, having occurred two weeks ago.

MOTHERS' DAY AT THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

"Christian Motherhood" proved the subject of a very able discourse by the Rev. C. W. Gavin on Sunday morning, when, at the 11 o'clock service, a special "Mother's Day" program took place. The Rev. Mr. Gavin is a forceful speaker, and his text touched the hearts of all who heard him. Miss Missoury Cawthon sang beautifully, as usual, and a quintette composed of some of the finest voices in the church also assisted.

MEETING OF THE NOMADS.

The Nomads met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Philip Hannah, on East Gregory street. An unusually valuable meeting was reported, with the following program arranged:

Quotations From Modern Writers.
The Ghetto, Mrs. R. M. Bushnell.
Distinguished Modern Writers, Mrs. Philip Hannah.

AT CHRIST CHURCH.

The musical service at Christ church last Sunday evening was highly appreciated. The work of the choir in the anthem and canticles was much enjoyed, as was also a charming organ solo.

The occasion served as the debut of a young Pensacola tenor with a good voice, whose sympathetic singing gives present pleasure and holds out promise of future attainment of a high order.

SURPRISE TENDERED MISS MAGGIE DIAZ.

A delightful surprise party was tendered Miss Maggie Diaz recently at her home at No. 134 West Government street by her many young friends, an enjoyable time having been reported by all who were in attendance. Delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were:

Misses Rebecca Fondebilla, Maud Berges, Vivian Berges, Gertrude Whitehead, Lillie Ferrell, Louie Mitchell, Lena Carol, Katie O'Donovan, Ruth Carol, Freda Benfield, Agnes Benfield, Alma Benfield, Minnie Griffin, and Messrs. J. Smallwood, L. Portledge, W. Portledge, F. Ladiner, C. Wheat, A. Burkhardt, J. C. Rogers, J. Leverette, O. Neil, H. Mertins, D. Moyer, J. Corelli, N. Pine, J. Walker, J. Selley, L. Davis, E. Diaz, also Messdames E. Diaz, A. J. Anderson, T. Walker and J. O'Brien.

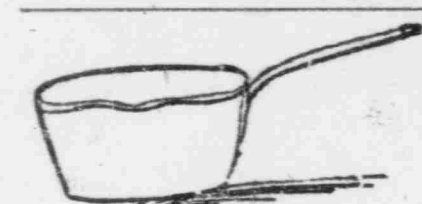

MR. BRADFORD DOING FINE WORK FOR PENSACOLA.

Mr. Jno. Bradford, of the Y. M. C. A., is attending the National Playgrounds convention at Pittsburg, Pa., this year, which convenes next Thursday, and lasts through to the 17th. During his absence he will acquaint himself with all the latest up-to-date methods in the work which he is so capably representing, and upon his

ABOUT A BOY.

One time there was
A boy
Named Roy—
A joy
To all who knew him best.
His parents were
The kind
Whose mind
Can find
No middle place to rest,
But must go on
And on
And on
Until the limit looms,
(For any child
To be,
As he,
Sans gloe,
Is quite the worst of dooms).
They sterilized the air he breathed,
They fed him insect powder;
He played formaldehyde-and-seek,
Which only made them prouder.
He wrote with disinfected ink on sanitary paper.
With baked and parboiled pencil,
Which was not a conic caper.
He was as free from crawling things as hard-boiled china eggs;
He wore curculio barriers round
about his sterile legs.
But once, alas,
The lad—
Poor tad,
'Tis sad!
Fled his germ-proof duress.
A microbe got
Inside
His hide
And died
Of utter lonesomeness!
—The Rag Time Muse.

"School Days" was much appreciated by the soldiers, who took special pride in protecting the party from any unpleasant occurrences. The entire crowd was a representative one of the city's brightest and most alert young people, and the day was generally enjoyed.

MRS. BELL IS TO BE HOSTESS.

The regular meeting of the Married Ladies' Euchre Club will take place this afternoon at the usual hour. Mrs. Bell is to be hostess at her home on Government street.

THE TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

There will be a meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club this afternoon. Mrs. M. P. Bonifay, who is one of the club's very popular members, will be hostess at her home on Romana street.

"UNCLE JOE" DIXON IS IN TOWN.

We've a particularly fine lot of friends around here whom we've been appreciating for a long time—but one of the most particular of our particular friends happened in from Live Oak

The Journal's Daily Fashion Feature

GOWN OF STRIPED LINEN.

The effect of this smart little tub suit was exceptionally pretty and new. The material used was natural color linen, with alternate stripes of blue and green. Narrow bandings of the stripe were used for outlining the sleeves, shoulder straps and the edge of the little bolero, and also to simulate frogs on front and sleeve. Under the bolero was a plain waist of tan batiste with yoke and cuffs of lace in self-tone and bandings of the striped material on the sleeves, which were tucked the entire length at intervals of about two inches. The yoke outline was ornamented by an embroidered design in dark blue. The skirt, which was attached to the waist by a broad girle of dark blue taffeta, was a plain five-gored model and untrimmed.

THE SHAKESPEARE CLUB.
The Shakespeare Club has scored so many successes this season that it is nothing new to tell of the entertainment and intellectual treat which characterizes each meeting, but yesterday's was a triumph to education with the delightful programme which was unfolded with education as its subject.

As usual the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. J. Torrey, and the attendance was large and enthusiastic. The president, Mrs. E. S. Colston, graciously vacated her chair on this occasion to Miss Lizzie Ponde, who having been elected a member of the federation educational committee of the state, arranged a splendid programme for the club and presided in a most able manner.

The roll call was responded to with the name of some great educator with comments.

The work mapped out by the federation chairman was given by Miss Ponde.

A reading—sketch of Thomas Arnold—Miss Nellie Friend.
It was most fitting that Mrs. Elliott Johnstone should have given a sketch of Dr. Thomas Cooper and the University of Virginia, as Dr. Cooper was her grandfather and the first president of the university.

A definition of education was given by each member of the club. Mrs. R. M. Elder furnished a fine paper on "Moral Training" and a very interesting and amusing feature of the programme were anecdotes of school by Miss Knott, Mrs. E. S. Colston and Mrs. Erwin Craighead, a trio who have kept so in touch with schools that the subject in their hands was delightfully handled.
